Dear Your Honor,

My name is Stephanie Peak and I am the aunt of Bushaun Brown the young man appearing before you in court.

Your Honor I am not writing to convince you that my nephew is a perfect being nor am I trying to say he is without blame or fault standing before you.

Your Honor I raised my nephew side by side with his mother Alicia Peak and my nephew is a very caring, loving, respectful human being who walks around with a good heart.

Your Honor I know he has made wrong choices and as a result of those choices he is now behind bars looking to be sentence but today I am writing and begging for leniency on his sentencing.

Bushaun admitted to me and his mother that he had made some terrible mistake and is sorry. He promised us that this will never happen again all he needs is a second chance to come home to his family and most importantly his three children and Your Honor I believe him.

Your Honor I believe Rushawn is ready to put this all behind him and start over afresh. He told me and ^{his} mom that he wants to do a trade so he can get a job to take care of his children. Rushawn loves and care for his children and is looking forward to raise them. So Your Honor all I am asking this one time is leniency so that he will be able to raise his children. Rushawn's youngest child Chyree will be celebrating his 1st birthday on January 6, 2017 a day after Rushawn's sentencing and the thought of my nephew not being around to celebrate with his son is heart breaking.

Your Honor I thank you for accepting and reading this letter on my nephew's ^{and} family behalf. I hope you will find it in your heart to consider my request for leniency and grant it. Thanks in advance for your help.

Sincerely

Stephanie Peak
